FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Mayor Demeza Delhomme is pleased to announce a successful collaboration between Advocating For Change Inc. and the Spring Valley Fire Department. Advocating For Change 14th Annual Book Bag Giveaway will be held simultaneously with the Spring Valley Fire Department Carnival in Memorial Park on Saturday August 30th, 2014. Mayor Delhomme said, "I would like to thank both organizations. The Spring Valley Fire Department, which is one of the busiest in Rockland County, for meeting the challenges they face on a daily basis in Spring Valley and the surrounding area. Also, Advocating For Change for the work they do to impact the lives of families and children in our community. I look forward to many more successful events."

Cassandra Edwards, Executive Director of Advocating For Change Inc. " I want to thank Mayor Delhomme for his continued support of our annual book bag giveaway hosted by Advocating For Change Inc. Working together, we will assist the children of Spring Valley in having proper school supplies to begin the school year and strive towards excellence."
